

ADA Requirements for Paratransit / Dial-A-Ride Services Workshop

DATE & LOCATION

Thursday, March 14th – RTD's Downtown Transit Center
421 E. Weber Avenue, Stockton, CA

Hosted by San Joaquin RTD

9:00AM – 3:30PM...LUNCH IS INCLUDED!

Course Description & Audience

The course will review all of the elements required by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) in providing fully accessible paratransit / dial-a-ride services to people with disabilities. The course is designed for Public Transit professionals working for cities & transit agencies, their contractors and consultants. Staff recommended to attend includes Operations Managers, Compliance Officers, Safety Analysts, Trainers, Road Supervisors, Dispatchers and Bus Operators.

Registration Information

$265 per person, including lunch.

Credit card users can make payment and register at NavigatorMobility.com/workshops. For payment via check, please contact Jess Segovia at 626.379.8400 or NavigatorMobility@gmail.com.

NavigatorMobility
CONSULTING

TOPICS INCLUDE

- Service Animals
- Direct Threat / Denial of Service
- Equivalent Service Requirements
- Assisting Riders with using Wheelchairs and Walkers
- Reasonable Modification
- Operator Training Requirements and more!

WORKSHOP HISTORY

Navigator Mobility's workshops have been attended by transit professionals from agencies like Los Angeles Metro, Access Services, OCTA, Paratransit Inc., AC Transit, East Bay Paratransit, LADOT, SJRTD, MV Transit, Long Beach Transit, Valley Metro, Victor Valley Transit, and RATP Dev.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Jess Segovia has two decades of public transit experience working in Fixed Route, ADA Paratransit and Mobility Management. He has facilitated sessions at CalACT, SWTA and AzTA conferences.