Plaza Hotel to Asilomar and Back

This is an easy ride to Asilomar State Beach and back. The ride follows the coastal bike path or bike lanes for the entire distance. It offers beautiful views of the coast. The total round trip distance is 14.9 miles, and it is virtually flat with only 409 feet of elevation gain. Since it is an out and back ride, you can turn around at any point along the ride.

Plaza Hotel to Carmel Loop

This ride for experienced bicyclists follows the same route as the Asilomar ride, but it continues on to the 17-Mile Drive to Carmel. In Carmel we will visit Carmel State Beach, then ride through downtown Carmel, up Carmel Hill, and then follow the Iris Canyon greenway into Monterey. The route is challenging for its climb up Carmel Hill to Highway 1. The total distance is 24.6 miles with 1,279' of climbing. We will plan to regroup at several points along the route.
